FALL STUDIO SALE

with Patrick Crabb & Special Guests

This year's annual Silk Tree Pottery Studio Sale promises to be another equally exciting event as last year's event with some very talented guest artists in ceramics and non-ceramic areas.

There will be 300+ items for your visual delight and shopping needs. Gorgeous functional to one-of-a-kind pieces will be on display. Lots of succulents and a raffle each day.

This is my yearly attempt to exhibit together artists who can bring together a sense of community among SoCal craftspeople. For added enjoyment, just enter my home to see the large collection of pottery. And hanging from my studio ceiling is my 100+ coffee mug collection. Do come by either day for some fun and conversations. I am only 10 minutes from Aardvark's Annual Fall Sale!
